

Kimberlee Baczewski

Kimberlee is the Grants Director for the Charles J. Strosacker Foundation. She's been a trustee at the Foundation for 11 years. Kimberlee graduated from Central Michigan University with a Bachelor of Arts in Therapeutic Recreation. She's currently working on obtaining her Master's Certificate in Philanthropy and Fundraising.

Prior to her work at the Foundation, Kimberlee worked as a Recreational Therapist and Admissions Manager in Lansing, Michigan, working with children and adults with traumatic brain injuries and spinal cord injuries. Kimberlee and her husband, Mark have two sons, ages 8 and 5. In their free time, they enjoy playing golf, basketball, Loons baseball, and traveling.

Kimberlee's community involvement includes the Arnold Center Board of Directors, Midland Kids First Board of Directors, and The Legacy Center for Community Success Board of Directors. She's on the Advisory Board and the Ethics Committee at MidMichigan Health. She's a member of the 100 Club, and also volunteers at Memorial Presbyterian Church and the PTO at Adams Elementary.
