

Adam Bruski

Adam is Senior Counsel at Warner Norcross & Judd here in Midland. He focuses his practice on providing advisory services to business in all stages from start-ups to transition planning. He represents companies of all sizes from single member LLCs to multinational corporations. His areas of specialty include business formation, licensing agreements, access to capital, real estate, contracts and restructuring. He has worked for the U.S. State Department at the Moscow Embassy and other locations around the world.

Adam has degrees from Michigan State College of Law, Georgetown University as well as University of Michigan.

He was named as a Michigan Super Lawyer Rising Star in 2016.

His professional affiliations include the American Bankruptcy Institute. Adam's community affiliations include United Way "Ask the Lawyer"

Program, Midland County Cancer Services Board Member, and Chippewa Nature Center Board Member.