

Mayor Maureen Donker

Mayor Maureen Donker was first elected to the Midland City Council in 2007. She was elected Mayor by her fellow Council members in 2009 and has served continuously since then. She also serves as a Trustee for the Michigan Municipal League's Workers Compensation Fund.

As the Executive Director of the Reece Endeavor, Maureen heads a local non-profit that provides housing for individuals with special needs.

Maureen serves on the Board of Trustees of the Arnold Center, the Advisory Board of Matrix Midland, and is a corporate member of MidMichigan Health. She was recognized as the Girl Scouts Woman of Distinction in 2004, the Midland Chamber of Commerce Athena Award in 2010, and the League of Women Voters Making Democracy Work in 2010.

A proud, life-long resident of Midland, Maureen and her husband Norm have two children, Erin and Jon.
