

Kyle Fahrner

Kyle, a life-long Mid-Michigan resident, graduated in 2006 from Saginaw Valley State University with a BBA in Economics, then attended the Northwood University Richard DeVos Graduate School of Management, graduating with an MBA in 2008. While attending Northwood University, Kyle worked as a special needs tutor and proctor for 2 years.

After completing graduate school, Kyle starting working at Chemical Bank in the Treasury and Portfolio Management department as a Treasury Analyst. He is currently an Assistant Vice President and is responsible for managing the banks liquidity risk and municipal lending. In 2015, he became an adjunct professor of Finance at Northwood University, teaching undergraduate courses in Corporate Finance.

Kyle and his wife Tina have lived in Midland since 2009. He enjoys the outdoors, golf, and is an avid reader and movie fanatic.