

Matt Granzo

Matt is an Agency Owner and the Vice President of Arbury Insurance Agency. Along with his two partners, he is responsible for growing the business, strategic planning, hiring new employees, manage finances, and making Arbury a safe and enjoyable place to work. Along with that, Matt fosters company relationships, manages and grows client relationships, control loss ratios with it's companies, and striving to maintain high client retention ratios.

Prior to becoming a partner, he spent most of his time in the Sales and Marketing side of the business at Arbury. Along with that Matt worked with new and current clients in the loss control arena, helping them with safety and various loss control needs.

Matt is a Midland native— born and raised in this great community. He stayed close to home as he attended Midland High School and Saginaw Valley State University. He is involved in many different service clubs, non-profits, and various committees. 'Giving back' is a passion of his and so is helping to make Midland an even better community to call home.

Outside of work and volunteering, Matt is happily married to his wife Kristen Granzo. They also have been blessed with two beautiful daughters, Gemma Victoria and Willa Amelia. He is an avid sports fan when it comes to golf, football, basketball, and baseball. If he's not in his office or with his family. You can probably find him on the golf course.
