

Scott Litle

Scott Litle is the Loons Vice President and General Manager. In this role, Litle oversees the day-to-day operations related to the team's affiliation with the Los Angeles Dodgers, its coaching staff, and its Midwest League partners. He also has a large management role with ESPN 100.9-FM. Litle previously served as the Loons Vice President of Sales and Event Operations.

Under Litle's leadership as Assistant GM of Ticket Sales & Event Operations, the Loons sold over 300,000 tickets in each of the Loons first two seasons, and over 270,000 tickets in 2009, which were well above the organization's stated goals and projections.

Scott joined the Loons in 2006 after serving as an assistant GM for the Tri-Cities (WA) Dust Devils (Short Season, Northwest League). Prior to joining the Dust Devils, Litle worked with current Loons President Paul Barbeau with the Spokane Indians (also of the Northwest League) as an account executive and later as director of ticket sales. Both teams are owned by Brett Sports.

Litle has established himself as a leader in the Mid-Michigan

Community. He currently sits on the board of directors for Big Brothers Big Sisters in the Heart of Michigan and the Arnold Center, and is a board member for the Midland Area Chamber Foundation. Scott completed the Great Lakes Bay Regional Alliance Leadership Institute, which aims to acquaint identified leaders in the GLBR with a regional perspective. Plus, he has been selected to appear at numerous community organization gatherings to speak on behalf of the Loons.

In 2015, Litle received the Ruby Award from Great Lakes Bay Regional Lifestyle Magazine, an honor recognizing young professionals in the Great Lakes Bay Region.

Litle is a 1999 graduate of Montana State-Billings where he received his bachelor's degree in management. Litle resides in Midland with his wife, Heather, and daughter Makayla. He enjoys spending his free time playing tennis and golf.
