

John M Searles

John is the superintendent of Midland County Educational Service Agency and has more than 25 years of service to public education in Michigan.

He has degrees from Aquinas College, Western Michigan University, and Michigan State University.

John has been appointed by Governor Rick Snyder to the Mental Health Diversion Council and by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction to the Special Education Advisory Council to the State Board of Education.

Superintendent Searles currently serves as past-president of the Michigan Association of School Administrators and on the boards of Disability Network of Mid-Michigan and the Arnold Center.